MAGIC

In an old fairy tale, you can read about a pair of magic eyeglasses through which boys and girls could see many wonderful things. When they put these glasses on, everything around them looked beautiful. They could see people and things in lands across the sea. They could also see things that were made long ago. But, as you know there really are no magic eyeglasses.

Yet there is a kind of magic in this book, for it takes you on an exciting journey into the past. Here you can see memories which were made by your friends. Every time you open this book to look at the beautiful memories, it will be like putting on the magic eyeglasses of the old fairy tale.

FRIENDS

His magic was not far to Seek, he was so human!
Whether strong or weak,
Far from his kind he
Neither sank nor soared,
But sat an equal guest at Every board: No beggar
ever felt him condescend,
No prince presume; for Still himself he bare at
Manhood's simple level,
And where'er he met a Stranger, ther he left Friend.

- J.R. Lowell

A Friend Is . . .

Someone who will stick up for you when you're not there.

Gail Cawyer

Somebody you can always talk to and trust and love.

Rick Edwards

A person you can count on to announce your personal problems all over campus.

Pete Cesarini

Someone who is always there when you need them.

Sigrid Michitsch

Someone you can trust with your worst problem.

Steve Gray

Someone who cuts the same amount of gazanias as you do.

Mary Skelton

Someone to party with.

Magic Of Words

On a rainy day of my life, a stranger came to me. The clouds of loneliness around me she gently pushed away; she brought from within the warmth of the sun and a part of me. A stranger who surely will leave as she came will never belong. Her love time will threaten, but never defeat. Some things we shared though, and like magic it may disappear, but it will always be there. Now a little lost in my way I can only know that it is there awakening to my mind that a search for a life-time was found not in looking but in just being myself.

Magic Of A Laugh

A man bought a horse from a preacher. The preacher said, "When you want the horse to go yell, 'Praise the Lord' and when you want it to stop yell, 'Amen.'"

Later the man wanted the horse to go. So he yelled, "Praise the Lord" and the horse took off. The man saw a cliff and wanted the horse to stop so he yelled, "Amen." The horse stopped right at the edge of the cliff. Noticing this the man said, with a sigh of relief, "Praise the Lord".

Magic Of Poetry

"The Question"

I think of you day
and night,
Can't get you out of my mind,
My feelings for you
are strong,
I love you.

You never share you
feelings with me,
You don't tell me how you feel,
So there's something I've been meaning to ask you,
I think you know what the question is,

"Especially for ..."

I don't care if your short
I don't care if your tall
I don't care if you love me
Cuz I don't love you
at all!

"Time"

We share our love now
How long will it last?
From now to eternity.

Seniors

Do you remember when you were in Kindergarten and you had a babysitter who was a Senior, and you would wonder what it would be like to drive a car and go out on dates? Or if you had an older relative who would show you their annual and you would imagine what it would be like to be a "TEEN-AGER" and listen to good ol' Rock 'n Roll. Well, now there's Disco and probably no one has babysat since Freshmen year, but it's still the same. There is still the same flutter in your heart when you hear "Pomp and Circumstance," the same tingle in your toes as you are walking up to get your diploma. And, of course, the mixture of sad and happy tears after it's all over. It seems like the end of the world when you realize it's time to say Good-Bye. But from the Good-Bye comes a Hello to a brand new life ahead of you. Good Luck and may all your dreams and ambitions prosper.

It seems like alot of good things happen in your sophomore year. Just think, you're finally an upperclassmen. No longer are you only a freshmen. And sophomore year is when you get your class ring to keep through the ages. And, of course, the big one; Driver's Training, one of the main steps to growing up.

We wish you luck in the upcoming years, but don't forget, you are not a Senior so watch out while you are a junior next year.

1. I think there's something in your eye. 2. J.V. Cheerleaders at a basketball game. 3. Come on silly! 4. Sophomore class officers: Colleen Cox, Pam Smith, Ann Cecero, Robin Smoyer.

Freshmen

Oh come on now, it wasn't so bad after all, was it? So what if you were an underclassmen with the lowest priority of all. It's all over now. It seemed like it took forever to get thru it. But relax and enjoy, because the next three years will go by so fast you won't know what hit you. The only time you will have to go thru this again is when you start college, or a new job or anything else new in life.

Girl's Track

The RHS girl's track team was coached by Ms. Everett and Mr. Matheny.

The team captivated the league this year with standout Rosy Kalabsa breaking records, and challenging all competitors. Not to mention, Gina Thompson as the star runner and Kathy Letcher right next to her.

We wish the J.V. just as much luck next year as the Varsity had this "magical" year of 1979.

Tennis

Ramona High had the biggest turnout ever for Tennis, and had for the first time a J.V. team.

Coach Paul Drob could not fail with Bill Anderson, Phil Knudson, and Pat Stockalper in singles play, and the Dynamic Duo of Pete Cesarini and Kevin Harrington in the doubles class.

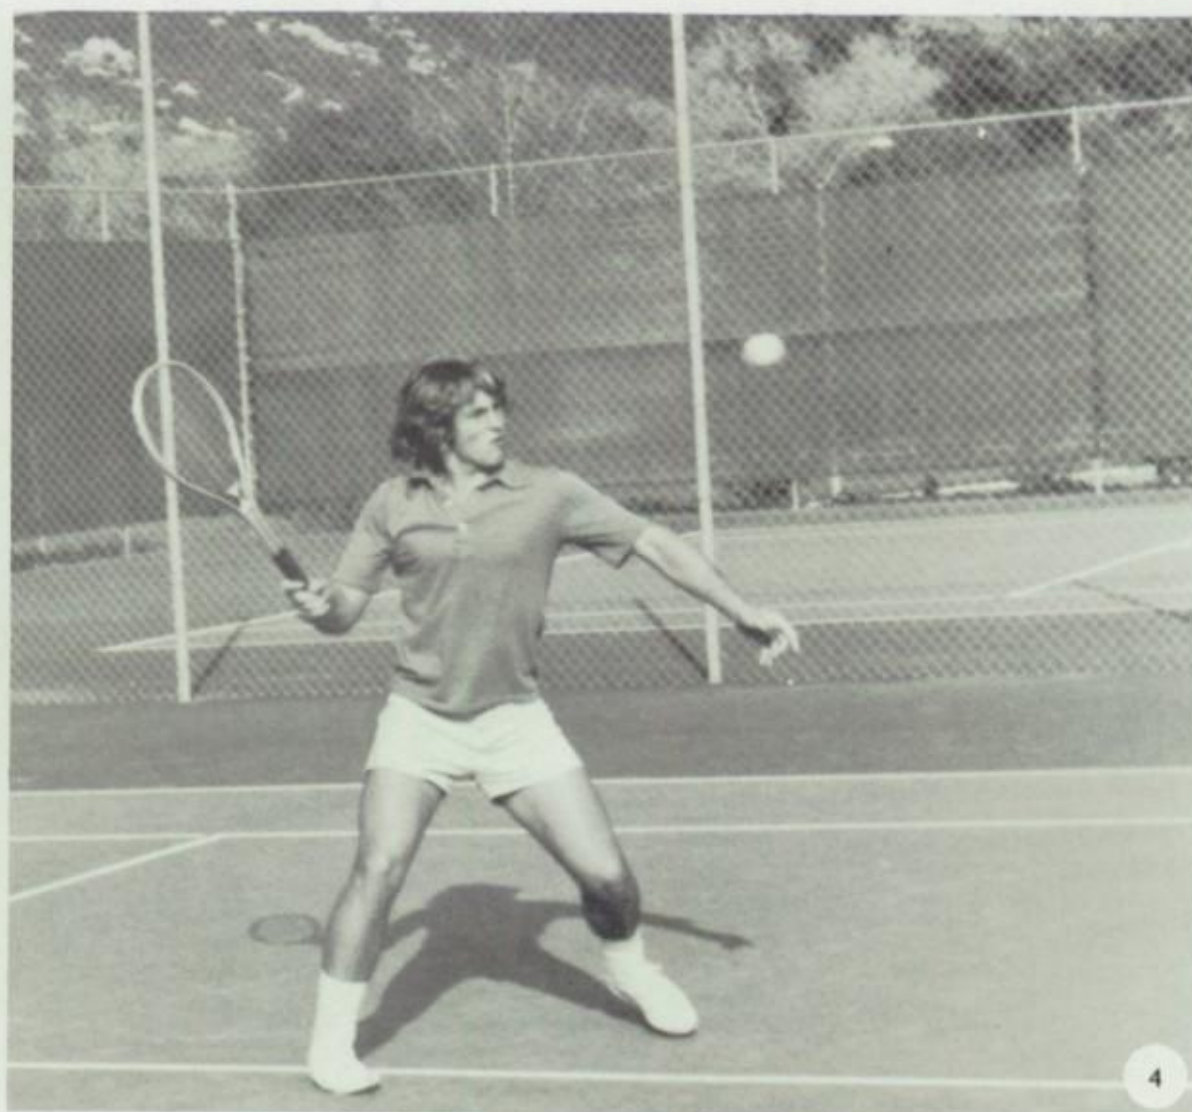

The top six players were returning and depended on immensely for the necessary points.

Golf

RHS golf had an exceptionally good year with the team effort generated by the coaching of Mr. Hardiman and Mr. Bossenbroek. Although, credit must be given to Mark Mahon and Tony Vaca for their outstanding talent in golf.

But the J.V. golf team is not to be forgotten; with the endurance they have attained, the J.V. will foster a fine Varsity team next year.

Sadie Hawkins

About two weeks before March 31, 1979, RHS girls started looking for someone they wanted to take to the Sadie Hawkins Dance. This happens once a year so the girls are particular on choosing the right date.

The tradition is to wear matching shirts and take your date to dinner and the dance. Although, not everyone follows tradition. Some couples go bowling or some activity after or before dinner.

"Spice" was the band that entertained the couples at the Sadies dance.

Homecoming Night

Rick Celaya and Becky Boykin put "Magic" in Ramona High School the night they were crowned Homecoming King and Queen of 1979. Last year's reigning King and Queen, Tom Tobiason and Tammie Souza were present to crown our new King and Queen.

Afterwards the Drill Team gave a magical touch to the night with an outstanding performance on the football field at halftime.

Although Ramona left the field defeated 29-7, the traditional Homecoming dance proved to be an exciting extravaganza.

Homecoming Week

There is a "magic" in the air around Homecoming week. Crazy things start to happen. Students build beautiful floats out of nothing but paper and wood, other students dress in the 50's or their favorite sport. Yet there is some sort of spell cast upon them.

On the night of October 27, 1978 a miracle occurred in the town of Ramona. The night was not your usual Friday football game night. The aura was blue and white. Everything was beautiful. As the night progressed students who normally dress in levis and t-shirts arrived at Ramona High in suits and dresses! They entered the gym where the band "Carl Christopher" was playing.

Homecoming is a time of pride and loyalty. Many couples will remember this night for the rest of their lives.

El Ano Queen

Each year the El Ano Dance is held to raise money for the yearbook. Several candidates for Queen are chosen from each class. Each candidate then has two weeks in which to raise money for the yearbook. The candidates sell baked goods, solicit donations from businesses, and display cans with their pictures in stores. The girl that raises the most money within the two weeks is crowned Queen. This year the girls $530.

The El Ano Dance was held on February 9, 1979. Trish Ramos was crowned Queen. Terry Ford was 1st runner-up, and Kristen Komarek was 2nd runner-up. We sincerely appreciate the efforts of all of the candidates.

Senior Play

On March 2nd and 3rd at the RHS Gym, the Senior put on a play every year to raise money for a gift to the underclassmen when they graduate. On the first night of the performance, the play is by script, if possible, and the second night is presented in the "ad-lib" fashion. This is the night when most of the audience appears.

Although the show was a success, it could not have been possible without the help of the stage crew, the devotion of the cast, and the more than experienced play advisor, Mrs. MacDonald.

Senior's Ditch Day

On March 28, 1979, a rainy, cold day in Ramona, but a sunny, warm day at Knott's Berry Farm, the Seniors ditched school and went on an excursion.

The day was full of excitement. The bus drivers playing "squeeze" with a bothersome car, the student's riding Montezuma's Revenge seven or eight times; with Leyton Wooley setting the record at 23 times, and the all-time record of 11 people in a bus bathroom in 4.32 minutes.

Many rides were enjoyed by students: Montezuma's Revenge, The Corkscrew, The Log Ride, and The Loop Trainer, were just a few of the dare-devil rides in the park.

Foreign Exchange

This year Ramona High School was very fortunate to have four foreign exchange students: Walkyria Bayona, Adriana Wauman, Andrea Neumeister, and Kris Salid.

Walkyria is at RHS for her second year and her home is with the Wade family. She is from Bogota, Columbia.

Andrea from Germany is a Senior staying with the Degenfelder's.

Fashions

The fashions this year were "classy." Clothes had a sophisticated look with a touch of mystery in the person wearing them.

Straight-leg pant with pumps rolled-up stylish jeans with boots, danceskins, and scarves draped around the neck, were some of the styles worn this year.

During the hot days or any warm days, it seemed like an epidemic of shorts broke out. Shorts of all styles and lengths.

Although, not all fashions are strictly clothes. Jogging, skiing trips, and disco dancing were the highlight of the active sports.

ACADEMICS AND ORGANIZATIONS

A.S.B.

A.S.B. had an active year in campaigning. Many students went out for the offices that were offered.

A.S.B. President, Joe Kreitenger, had an experience in the 1978-79 school year getting his responsibilities organized, since it was his first year. Other A.S.B. members: Sigrid Michitsch, Gene Gray, Sheryl Dubil, Val Pride, and Marjie Thomsen were advised by Mr. Bowman.

The student body this year presented a dance with "$$Fluke" as the band on March 9, to raise money to finance activities of the Bulldog Bash.

Under the direction of Captain, Paula Miller, Linda Cunningham and teacher Tern Woodhouse, the Flag Corp has twi-lighted into a promising future.

They have performed at half-times, pep rallies, and football games. They improved themselves by attending clinics and camps preparing for competition. They raised money by bake sales and are hoping to start the next year with just as much enthusiasm as this year had.

Each month they sponsored and attended workshops given by professional teachers, and performed in a joint concert with Grossmont District Schools at San Diego State University.

To raise money for costumes and other necessities they sold mistletoe and baked goods. One of our hardest working groups, the Modern Dance Club is looking forward to a continued program in the future.

The paper's Editor was Senior Scott Santos who organized the staff with complete dedication.

The staff consisted of: Mary Skelton; Editor, Cammy Wade; Ads, Tracy Wisham; Activities Coordinator, Berdine Lawrence; Ads, Diana Fansher; Copy, Nancy Wold; Photographer, Mr. Knudson; Adviser. Due to the shortage of help, everyone helped in other departments.

The Yearbook Staff would like to thank everyone who helped us with the yearbook. Your assistance was deeply appreciated.
